GERMANY'S REPLY UNSATISFACTORY

Passenger Ships, However, Are Assured Safety From Submarines

BLAMES THE ALLIES

Kaiser Pleads Self-Defense and Justifies Sinking of Lusitania—Arguments Recapitulated.

The German reply to the American note, handed to Ambassador Gerard at Berlin yesterday, is regarded in Washington as disappointing, but not disquieting.

Berlin assures the United States of its willingness to work for a more humane form of warfare when peace shall have been concluded, but promises nothing for the present; asserts that the Lusitania disaster was caused by Great Britain in encouraging merchantmen to ram submarines, and holds enemies responsible for barbaric naval policy.

Germany promises to afford all possible protection to Americans on the high seas. The notes' reply in this connection states:

"In the spirit of friendship, wherewith the German nation has been imbued toward the Union and its inhabitants since the earliest days of its existence, the imperial government will always be ready to do all it can during the present war also to prevent the jeopardizing of lives of American citizens.

"The imperial government, therefore, repeats the assurance that American ships will not be hindered in the prosecution of legitimate shipping and the lives of American citizens in neutral vessels shall not be placed in jeopardy.

"In order to exclude any unforseen dangers to American passenger steamers, made possible in view of the conduct of maritime war by Germany's adversaries, German submarines will be instructed to permit the free and safe passage of such passenger steamers when made recognizable by special marking and notified a resonable time in advance. The imperial government, however, confidently hopes that the American government will assume to guarantee that these vessels have no contraband on board, details of arrangements for the unhampered passage of these vessels to be a guarantee by the naval authorities of both sides.

"In order to furnish adequate facilities for travel across the Atlantic for American citizens the German government submits for consideration a proposal to increase the number of available steamers by installing in passenger service a reasonable number of neutral steamers under the American flag, exact number to be agreed upon under the same condition as the above-mentioned American steamers.

"The imperial government believes it can assume that in this manner adequate facilities for trawel across the Atlantic Ocean can be afforded American citizens. There would, therefore, appear to be no compelling necessity for American citizens to travel to Europe in time of war on ships carrying an enemy flag.

"In particular the imperial government is unable to admit that American citizens can protect an enemy ship through the mere fact of their presence on board.

"Germany merely followed England's example when she declared part of the high seas an area of war. Consequently, accidents suffered by neutrals on enemy ship in this area of war cannot well be judged differenly from accidents to which neutrals are at all times exposed at the seat of war on land when they betake themselves into dangerous localities in spite of previous warnings.

"If, however, it should not be possible for the American government to acquire an adequate number of neutral passenger steamers, the imperial government is prepared to interpose no objections to the placing under the American flag by the American government of four enemy passenger steamers for passenger traffic between North America and England. Assurances of "free and safe" passage for American passenger steamers would then extend to apply under the identical conditions to these formerly hostile passenger steamers".

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT.

Alexander Murray Passes Away in Natchez, Miss., Yesterday.

A dispatch was received in this city this morning announcing the death yesterday in Natchez, Miss., of Alexander Murray, a former resident of Alexandria. The deceased was in his 92d year. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Enie Murray.

Mr. Murray was a native of Fredericksburg. He came to this city with his brother, the late William Murray, in 1855, and the firm of Murray Brothers, merchant tailors, was for many years an Alexandria institution. At the outbreak of the civil war William Murray and his sons being members of volunteer companies, went south and were members of the Army of Northern Virginia.

The subject of this notice remained here where he continued the tailoring business, the firm name being Murray and Ridgeley. At the close of the war William Murray returned to Alexandria, and for a time the firm was known as Murray, Ridgeley and Murray. Alexander Murray subsequently removed to the southern country where he conducted business until a few years ago, when advancing years forced him to relinquish it.

He occasionally made visits to this city where he was always cordially welcomed, especially by the older residents who had known him so many years.

Mr. Murray was a member of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, and that organization will conduct the funeral. The remains will reach this city Monday morning at 7 o'clock.

ITALIANS PLAY TRICK

Take Charge of Balkan Neutral Steamer and Capture German Submarine

Turin, July 10—The Giornale d'-Italia says:

A steamer belonging to one of the laden with benzine and and naphtha by an Italian warship. The captain of the steamer confessed that he was waiting to deliver the cargo to a German submarine.

The naval commander thereupon took possession of the vessel, manned it with a crew of his own bluejackets disguised as ordinary seamen and armed the ship with machine guns. Then he set out to keep his appointment.

Precisely at the hour and spot arranged the periscope was seen emerging from the surface. Greetings were being exchanged when the commander of the steamer, stepped forward and cried. "Take your choice—surrender or be sent to the bottom."

The stupefied Teutons chose the former, and, with their craft, were towed to a well-known naval port.

TO ATTACK SUBMARINES

150 Powerful Speedboats Being Made In New York

New York, July 10— The G. C. Smith Boat and Engine Company announces that representatives of the British French and Russian governments have asked that company to submit estimates for the construction of upward of 150 powerful motor speedboats for war purposes. These craft are required to be strong enough to carry two or more light guns and are to be used, it is understood, in seeking out and attacking German submarines in the water about England and France and in the Baltic Sea.

It is reported that the British government wants at elast 100 such boats while the Russians want 40. The number wanted by France was not stated.

The plans call for boats 30 feet long, equipped with 500 horsepower engines and capable of a speed of fifty miles an hour. As the factory of the Smith Company is in Canada near Detroit, no violation of American neutrality is feared.

VIRGINIANS GIVEN HEARTY OVATION

Governor, Colonels and Soldiers Capitulate to Hostesses

ENJOY FESTIVITIES

Delegation From Old Dominion Feted Privately and Officially—Little Time for Exposition.

Exposition Grounds, San Francisco, Cal., July 10—If the Virginians who came to San Francisco believed that their duties in representation were to end with Virginia Day, they were disappointed. California hospitality, with the throttle wide open, merely got on the tracks that day in every speech at every function, and there have been dozens of them in the last forty-eight hours. The California "spielers" have invariably boasted that the greatest tribute paid them by all the delegations which have visited them was that of several of the Southern and Eastern States, whose delegates said, "You are so much like the Virginians."

It was early yesterday morning when the dinner dansant given by the woman's board of the exposition came to an end, The ovation given Governor Stuart by the 100 beautiful California women was calculated to alleviate any homesickness that might be in evidence on the part of Virginia's Governor and his colonels and escorts, "the gallant Richmond Blues," as the California beauties referred to them.

The 100 California beauties had to call their supports and their reserves to the firing line, until their number was swelled to 200 before the Virginia Governor, colonels and gallant Blues finally capitulated. All eyes and all remarks were for the Virginians. Never before in the history of the Old Dominion has a delegation from that State been met with a more strenuous effort to equal Virginia's hospitality. Even California was for the evening forgotten. In their handsome military evening dress, the staff colonels and the Blues enjoyed such an evening as they had never before experienced. A delightful dinner, served in the magnificent banquet hall of the California Building, was followed by dancing in the ballroom below. "Virginia" was on every lip. It was not until the evening's festivities were over that a weary newspaper correspondent in the thin, gray hours of the early morning inquired who the distinguished looking bald-headed man was that sat near Governor Stuart at the dinner table, and learned for the first time that it was William Jennings Bryan.

"We would have liked to do more for Mr. Bryan than merely invite him to the dansant," said one distinguished gray-haired matron. "But he was only a grandson of Virginia and then we couldn't get up the courage to serve only grape juice and prunes."

Mrs. Francis Carolin, of San Francisco, formerly a Miss Pullman, daughter of the founder of the Pullman Company, and one of the wealthiest and most beautiful and prominent matrons in California entertained in honor of Governor Stuart, his staff and the Blues that home, "Burlingame," near San Francisco. Mrs. Carolin will run several special trains to her home from San Francisco, where she will endeavor to give the Virginians a sample of her ideas of Virginia hospitality, claiming that Illinois was formerly a county of Va. For this entertainment the visiting Virginians are indebted to Miss Nannie R. Heth, daugghter of the famous and universally beloved Gen Harry Heth, of the United States and later Confederate armies. Mrs. Carolin asked her friend, Miss Heth, hostess of the Virginia Building at the exposition, how she could show her respect for the sons of the "Mother of States and Statesmen." and what probably will be the most elaborate private entertainment in California this year was the outcome of Miss Heth's suggestion that she do anything she might see fit to honor the Virginians.

MINNEHAHA AT HALIFAX

Fire on Steamer Was Caused by an Infernal Machine

Halifax, July 10.—With flames caused by the explosion of an infernal machine raging in her number 3 hold, and after weathering a gale and a thick fog, the steamship Minnehana of the Atlantic Transport Line, was brought safely to anchorage in the lower harbor yesterday afternoon.

The fire on the steamer had been extinguished.

There is no doubt that the explosion was caused by a bomb placed aboard the vessel while she was lying at her dock in New York City.

Officials of the line, after listening to the thrilling tales of Capt. Claret and the 100 members of the crew of the freighter, which carried 15,000 ton of war munitions for Great Britain stated that they believe it to have been the work of Frank Holt or of a confederate.

Warned by a message from Secretary of the Navy Daniels that Frank Holt, alias Erich Muenter, has boasted that he would send to the bottom some vessel, the name of which appeared to be uncertain of, on Wednesday. Capt. Claret had the life boats swung out in readiness for lowering in event of the explosion occurring.

At 4:15 Wednesday afternoon and when the ship was 570 miles southeast of Halifax an explosion of terrific force took place, shaking the vessel from stem to stern, stunning those of the crew who were forward at the time, hurling other sailors in the air and setting fire to the number three hold. For two days and two nights in a stiff southwest gale the crew fought heroically and succeeded in saving their ship.

The plans of whoever placed the explosive aboard the vessel to send the munition bearing ship to the bottom were frustrated by the fact that their weapon of destructionwas anticipated Instructions to take every precaution against an explosion was received by the operator on the Minnehaha at 12:30, noon. Four hours later the explosion occurred. Immediately upon receipt of the message Capt Clark prepared for the worst.

The vessel was not making more than half speed when the explosion was felt in every part of the ship. Three seamen near the hatch were thrown high into the air. One was picked up in a dazed state. Another was on a step ladder and the ladder was also lifted into the air, the seaman clinging to it. He escaped unhurt

The steamer is still at quarantine, and on account of the gale and unfavorable weather conditions the hatches were not removed last night. Small quantities of smoke continue to pour out and steam is still being injected. As the fire burned fiercely for thirty hours, it is believed that much of the cargo has been damaged.

TIRE OF EDITORIALS

Evident That Germany Desires Understanding with America

Berlin, July 10—Among the items given out for distribution abroad by the Overseas News Agency are:

"Political and even naval circles are beginning to tire of the daily editorials in the Deutsche Tages Zeitung against a German-American understanding on the submarine question. The Tages Zeitung's attitude is considered sufficient proof that such an understanding is desirable.

"The Chemnitz socialist news paper, the Volks Stimme, has received a letter from its editor, who is fighting with the German forces on the eastern front, regarding the recently published peace proclamation of the socialistis party. The editor called it not a political measure, but suicidal insanity. Germany, he said may treat for peace whenever she pleases without fearing the consequences. On the contrary, it is only the certainty that they will have to suffer fearfully from their own acts that can bring Germany's enemies to their senses, he declared."

ATTACK MADE ON THE NEW TAX LAW

Permanent Injunction is Granted on Petition of Armour & Co.

IMPORTANT ACTION

Company Charged Discrimination in New Law Which Listed as Purchases Goods Made Elsewhere.

Richmond, July 10.—Under an order entered yesterday by Judge R. Carter Scott, of the City Circuit Court, which stands unless changed or enlarged by the court later. Armour & Co. is granted a permanent injunction restaining State Auditor of Public accounts C. Lee Moore and certain commissioners of the revenue of Virginia towns and cities, from requiring the company to include as purchases the goods manufactured by it outside of Virginia and brought here for sale, in its application for a merchant's license tax to do business in the respective cities and towns named.

A temporary injunction to this effect was granted Armour and Co., by the court on May 18. This order was to have expired today unless previously enlarged. The order entered by Judge Scott yesterday makes the temporary restraining order effective until changed or enlarged at some time in the futurn.

The company attacked section 45 of the new tax code, which became effective on March 19, 1915, defining the requirements for merchants license taxes. In the bill accompanying their original prayer for an injunction. Armour and Co. set forth that they operate numerous packing and other manufacturing plants in large Western and Eastern cities. The point was made that the business in which the company is engaged is "peculiarly a manufacturing business."

Complaint was registered against the obligation imposed by the new tax law which requires the several branches and distributing houses maintained by the company in this State, to include as purchases, for the purpose of determining the amounts of their merchants' license taxes, all goods and wares manufactured by the company outside the State.

The section the company charged operates to discriminate in favor of resident manufacturers a burden of taxation in order to dispose of their products in Virginia, which is not imposed on non-resident manufacturers who are expressly exempted under section 47 of said tax bill from payment of a merchant's license tax.

The company expressed its willingness to provide its several branches with merchants' licenses based on what it calls actual purchases. It claimed the same privilege accorded resident manufacturers in the matter of exempting wares and products of its own manufacture.

In point of the amount of revenue that will be lost to the State, the injunction, which was practically made permanent by Judge Scott's enlarging order yesterday is of the first importance. It represents the first successful attack on a section of the tax code ratified by the recent special session of the General Assembly.

The injunction applies to C. Lee Moore, under whose orders the attempt was made to enforce the section to which objection was taken, and to the following commissioners of the revenue in cities and towns where the company maintains distributing offices; Joheph B. Anderson, Danville; D. R. Hunt, Roanoke; W. H. Snead, Lynchburg; Charles H. Callahan, Alexandria; D. W. Fowler, Charlottesville; Henry E. Tresnon, Richmond; R. L. Cosby, Newport News; E. J. Doran, Norfolk; F. A. Heatwole, Harrisonburg; and W. H. Fletcher, Norfolk.

GOOD GAME TOMORROW.

Cardinals to Cross Bats With Undefeated National A. C. of Washington at Ball Grounds.

The strong National Athletic Club, of Washington, who sent the Cardinals of this city down to defeat in a former game played here between the two teams will come down to Alexandria tomorrow to try if possible to repeat the trick, and it is for this reason that the local club is going to send out their strongest line-up tomorrow in an effort to redeem themselves against the Washington team.

The same line-up will be used by Manager Gauzza of the Nationals as in the first game with the Cardinal boys. Lem Owens will be on the firing line for the visitors, and the chances are Eddie Thompson or "Lefty" White for the home team. The National team has not lost a game at this season, but if it can be done the Nationals will be sent away tomorrow with their winning streak broken.

The game will start at 4:30 and will be played at the Cardinal ball ball park.

A collection will be taken up after the game to defray expenses.

DEMAND ON VATICAN

England and Belgium Insists That Pope Condemn Germany's Course.

Rome, July 10—The Belgian envoy to the Vatican has demanded an official, written statement from Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of State, explicitly declaring that the Pope condemns Germany's violation of Belgium's neutrality, which the Belgians were in duty bound to defend, deploring the German atrocities and characterizing them as unjustified, an and promising to use the entire influence of the holy see personally in an effort to restore completely Belgium's independence and territorial integrity.

The envoy asks that the papal protest against the German atrocities and persecutions be made at the present opportune time.

A statement, countersigned by Pope Benedict, was delivered to the envoy and transmitted to the Belgian government, which will reserve the right to publish it if it considers the publication necessary.

A similar statement has been demanded of the Pope by Sir Henry Howard, the British envoy to the Vatican.

Sir Henry asks that the Pope condemn the sinking of the Lusitania and Germany's submarine warfare against merchant ships in general, the use of asphyxiating gases and the bombardment of unfortified coast towns.

All of these things, the British contend, are contrary to the laws of humanity and civilizaiton and unworthy of a Christian nation.

KILL 100 GERMAN OFFICERS

Constantinople Garrison Mutinies as English Force Dardanelles.

Rome, July 10—From diplomatic sources it is learned that the situation in Constantinople is increasing in horror. The city hospitals are overcrowded with 90,000 wounded soldiers from the Gallipoli slaughter zone and the number is steadiiy mounting.

Awed by the feats of British submarines in the Sea of Marmora and convinced that the forcing of the Dardanelles is inevitable, Turkish soldiers are reported as unwilling to fight, holding resistance to be useless. The latest re-enforcements from Smyrna have gone to the fighting line on the peninsula weeping and ready to turn upo ntheir German commanders.

More than 100 German officers have been murdered in cold blood, including Col von Leipzing military attacne at Constantinople.

The State Corporation Commission has issued an amendment to the charter of the Old Dutch Market, Incorporated, Alexandria; increasing capital stock from $150,000 to $300,000.

GRAND DUKE HALTS GERMAN ADVANCE

Muscovites Again Resume Offensive and Meet With Success

CAPTURE 15,000 MEN

Further British Gains Reported North of Ypres—Capture 200 Yards of German Trenches.

Petrograd, July 10—The Grand Duke's armies not only have halted the Austro-German advance on Lubin but have taken the offensive and are driving Mackensen back on a wide front extending from the mouth of the river Podilip to south of Baykhawa, the war office announced today.

"In the fighting around the village of Wilkazgorny alone, we have taken 15,000 prisoners" it is announced. "The enemy continues to retreat, resisting obstinately the pressure of our advance guards.

"The enemy attacked fruitlessly our positions at the village of Koupteche, on the Bug river, leaving 300 dead and wounded before our trenches. Elsewhere along the Bug and along the Zlota Lipe river in Galicia the enemy has ceased his attacks.

London, July 10—Further British gains north of Ypres, where the British on July 6 captured 200 yards of German trenches are reported in a communication from Field Marshal ir John French, commander-in-chief of the British expeditionary force in the western theater. Gen. French states that after a bombing duel lasting two days and two nights, the Germans fell back enabling the British to extend their gains.

All reports, says the field marshal indicate that the German losses were severe.

NINE BOMBS FOUND ON SHIP

Discovery Hushed up Until After British Vessels Arrive From Marseilles

New York, July 10—Nine bombs hidden in bags of sugar were found aboard the British steamer Kiroswald when she discharged her cargo at Marseilles, France, on her last eastward trip, according to officers who landed here today on the vessel's return trip.

The sugar was loaded on the vessel at the Fabre line pier in Brooklyn they said. They believed that stevedores hid the bombs which for some reason failed to explode.

Case of Jacob Rose Against George Heon in Circuit Court This Morning.

The case of Jacob Rose vs. George Heon was brought up in the Circuit Court, Judge J. B. T. Thornton, this morning. Rose, a pawnbroker, at 320 King street, seeks to recover payment on a check for six hundred dollars, which he say was given him by Heon for the sale of tracts of land in Hopewell, Va., where the firm of Heon and Constantinople intends to open a fruit business. Rose claims that after this check had been given him by the aforesaid parties that Heon telephoned the bank on which the order was drawn and had payment on the check withheld. It is for the six hundred dollars on the check that Rose is bringing suit. The plaintiff is represented by Attorneys Samuel G. Brent and Robinson Moncure, and the defendant by Leo P. Harlow.

The jury awarded a sum of $500 to the plaintiff. According to the defendant's counsel Heon will take an appeal to a higher court.

HONOR HUSS'S MEMORY

Rev. Dr. Jno. Lee Allison Will Preach Special Sermon on Bohemian Reformer Tomorow

Five hundred years ago on the 6th of July, 1415, in the city of Constance, Switzerland, John Huss, deposed rector of the University of Prague, Bohemia, and ex-priest of Bethlehem Chapel, was publicly disgraced and condemned to death on the charge of heresy. He was led through a mocking crowd to a meadow outside the city gates and burned to a stake; his ashes were thrown into the Rhine, but his service and labors abide, and his name is among the illustrious. His contributions have been manifold to the church and the world and Protestants and Catholics alike are commemorating this year his services in government, in language, in literature and religion. He was the John the Baptist of his day, speaking the word with a strong voice and a clean conscience.

Special services will be held in the Second Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning and Dr. Allison will preach a special sermon commemorating the anniverasry of the marty-

PLATE IS RETURNED.

Relic Returned to Rev. W. J. Morton, Rector of Christ Church, This Morning.

The curiosity of Alexandrians was excited when it was learned that the name plate on Washington's pew in Christ Church had been recovered. The plate, on which was engraved a facsimile of the signature of the first president, who was a member of the historic church, was stolen several weeks ago at about the same time when a leaf from the old Bible in the Masonic Temple also disappeared, both thefts being committed, according to popular belief, by the same person, presumably a "relic fiend."

The silver plate was delivered at the home of Rev. William J. Morton, the rector of the church, in an anonymous parcel post package this morning, and for a long time no clue to the identity of the person sending it could be found. The postmark had been so defaced that the name of the place whence the package was sent was believed to be illegible, but several hours after its delivery Dr. Morton, managed to read "Cleveland Ohio," stamped on the cover.

No reason can be found for the returning of the relic, unless it had lately been transferred by the original thief into the hands of the person who sent the package. A veil of mystery surrounds the affair.

GERMANY'S REPLY DISAPPOINTING

Although the new matter contained in Germany's reply to the United States in the Lusitania case has reached Washington to enable officials to forecast what the reply of the United States will be.

It can be asserted that the United States will stand on its demand that Germany accept responsibility for the death of American citizens on the Lusitania. Germany, however will be given an opportunity to reply to the rejoinder of the United States to the German note which will be formulated at a Cabinet meeting Tuesday, it being the intention of the President to return to Washington Monday.

The purpose of the Washington government in contending that Americans have the right to travel anywhere on the high seas on unarmed and unresisting merchantmen is held by many officials to have thus far been successful, for there has been an absence of any important violation of American rights since the negotiations began two months ago.

There have been no advices of any case of torpedoing without warning in the last few weeks and although the efforts of the United States to obtain by diplomacy an exact agreement to modify German submarine operations, have not been successful, the practice has undergone changes in the view of officials who have kept close watch of the activities of the under water craft.

The United States seems to be in much the same position in its experience with Germany similar to that with Great Britain over one hundred years ago. The United States went to war with the parent kingdom which had refused to abandon the practice of stopping American vessels upon the high seas, removing therefrom citizens of the United States and forcing them to join the British navy. At the treaty of Ghent England did not enter into an agreement to stop the practice, but did abandon it on her volition.

The Baltimore American in referring to Germany's proposition in order to safeguard Americans on the high seas says:

"As for the nonsense of this country siding with Germany to guarantee cargoes the position smacks of making the United States a military satrapy of the Germans. Does Germany for a moment suppose that Americans forget that the great war had as its inducing cause, the demand of Austria that it should have official representation in ferreting out alleged plotters among the Serbians? Does Germany suppose that the United States would for a second share its sovereign rights and responsibilities and mortify itself in its honor by agreement to German scrutiny of its performance of any of its proper functions, or the adoption of functions that are none of its business?"

SUBMARINES ARE EXPENSIVE.

German submarines have destroyed many English ships—most of them, however, have been fishing craft—since war was declared; but considering the enormous volume of British shipping, the great bulk escape these sea terrors. It was stated about six months ago that the total number of vessels sunk up to that time would not number as many as leave England during any half day.

During the past half a year or more Germany has lost a number of its undersea craft, and every time one is destroyed or captured the loss is enormous from a monetary standpoint.

London Tid-Bits has the following in regard to the cost of submarines:

"Although actual figures, for obvious reasons, are not available, one would be underestimating, rather than overestimating, the cost of the German submarine U-29, which the British Admiralty reports to have been sunk, at £200,000. This total is based on the fact that, according to a certain official publication, the E-4 of our submarine fleet, which was completed in 1913, cost £107,791; and the E class is neither the largest nor the most expensive type of submarine in the fleet today.

According to the admiralty statement, the cost of the hull, fittings and equipment of the E-4 was £26,787, £79,105 being spent on her propelling and other machinery. In addition to this outlay there was an item of £1,500 for incidental charges' which related to the proportionate cost incurred while the vessel was in the hands of the dockyard authorities being finished off.

When it is remembered that the U-29 was one of the very latest types of submarines, armed with two 14-pounder guns and two small anti-aircraft guns, with oil engines of about 2,000 horsepower giving her a nominal speed on the surface of 17 to 18 knots, while her radius with oil in the double skin with which she was fitted is believed to have been over 3,000 miles, and perhaps as much as 4,000, it will be readily understood that the cost of her construction must have been very much more than that of the E-4."

JUDEA SILENTLY SUFFERING.

A Hebrew prophet many centuries ago in his forecast likened Judea to a lodge in a garden of cucumbers—quiet and deserted. Conditions at present give no encouragement to optimistic Zionists who are looking for the resuscitation of the holy land.

War, plague and famine are devastating Palestine. Most all the resources of the country have been commandered by the Moslem Government, and all the men of the country are either employed as soldiers or forced to help built roads. There is very little food, and what is to be had commands such exorbitant prices that it is next to impossible to obtain any of it.

This lack of food is attributed to the fact that the government has commandeered it, in the first place, and in the second place, to the terrible pestilence pervading the country in the nature of locusts. The roads throughout Palestine are black with them, and when the carriages are driven over them there is a constant crackling. These locusts are destroying all the crops of the country. It is said that there are already three or four generations of these insects, the females being capable of laying an average of 90 eggs, which usually are deposited in spongy hillsides are covered with these lumps of eggs, and the natives of the country go about gathering them in order to hold down the plague. The government itself has ordered every person to gather six pounds of these locust eggs or pay a fine of $5.

The banks throughout the country are closed, and since the entrance of Italy into the war practcally all emigration has ceased, due to the withdrawal of Italian boats. The people are thus left destitute in a plague-swept country. The people are under the control of the Turkish government, and simply do its bidding.

KITCHENER'S CALL TO SHIRKERS.

The echo of the words of Admiral Nelson before the battle of Cape Trafalgar —"England expects every man to do his duty"—is being heard all over the British isles at present. While many Englishmen are at the front showing valor at a time when the destiny of their country is hanging in a balace, the number of stay-at-homes is attracting the attention of those at the head of the government. Earl Kitchener thinks there are too many engaged in so-called patriotic works behind the stockades.

The Earl in an address in the Guildhall, London, yesterday afternoon at a meeting to inauguarte a special recruiting campaign, appealed to the conscience of shirkers and those men "for whom it is claimed they are indispensable whether for work directly associated with our military forces or for other purposes, public or private."

Lord Kitchener particularly addressed himself to persons now engaged in patriotic or useful work who found in this occupation an excuse for not joining the army. For instance, there are many special constables of military age. All such he urged to search their conscience and to ask themselves if they reallly had a valid excuse for not joining the army.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Swiss government has decided to issue a new loan of $20,000,000 to cover the cost of mobilization.

The net debt of the United States at the conclusion of the fiscal year ended June 30, 1915, amounted to $1,069,848,006.

Another sensational robbery occurred yesterday morning in Yellowstone National Park. Twelve coaches and between 100 and 125 tourists were held up by a lone bandit heavily masked, and deprived of their money and valuables.

Word reached Washington yesterday that William J. Bryan's price for delivering a lecture now is $500. This is a decided increase. The old rate was $250 guarantee and 50 per cent of the gate receipts when they amounted to more than $500.

The Turkish arsenal at Corendor was partially destroyed by an explosion of unknown origin early yesterday. The shock was felt in Constantinople and caused a panic, the people believing the Russian Black Sea fleet had blown up a Bosphorus fort.

Edward J. Byrns, 43, a fireman at No. 11 engine house, in Fourteenth street northwest, near Park Road, Washington, yesterday morning committed suicide by shooting himself in the temple with a shotgun. He had talked frequently of suicide about a year ago.

An attempt was made to assassinate the Sultan of Egypt at Alexandria. His majesty was leaving the mosque after the usual Friday prayers when a young Egyptian hurled a bomb, which failed to explode. The Sultan escaped unhurt, and his assailant escaped capture.

Curtis's big powder mills at Hounlow, Middlesex, England, were virtually destroyed yesterday by a series of explosions which occurred shortly after 100 men had begun work. It is stated that only one person had been killed, but that a great many others had been injured by flying debris.

A coroner's inquest into the manner in which death was reached by Frank Holt, who shot J. P. Morgan, establishes clearly that he killed himself by jumping head foremost eighteen feet from an iron bar on the side of his cell. There was nothing to indicate that Holt had been shot or had shot himself.

Turkish forces from Yenen, Southwest Arabia, supported by Arabs, are threatening Aden, the British port, according to an official report issued by the Britiish Press Bureau. The Turks, with a large number of Arabs and field guns, crossed Aden hinterland near Lahej, compelling a British force to fall back on Aden. This occurred on July 5.

Owing to the unusually large number of clergymen who have resigned from their charges in Baltimore within the last three months, churches of five denominations are now without ministers. There are eight churches with unoccupied pulpits and one other where the resignation of the rector is only a matter of a few weeksk. Of these four are Baptist churches.

The death toll of the storm which swept parts of Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri Wednesday night may reach 125. The known read is now placed at 75 and the missing at 25. The property loss is estimated at $25,000,000. There are 30 persons known to be dead in the environs of Cincinnati, nine in Illinois, seven in Missouri and four in Indiana.

Officials in Washington were somewhat surprised yesterday to learn that Gottlieb von Jagow, German minister of foreign affairs, in an interview in Berlin had revived the proposal made by Germany last February that the United States get the consent of Great Britain to the restoration of a cable service between the United States and Germany, on condition that Germany would pay the expense of the work and the United States act as censor.

The next building program for the United States navy will include estimates for nearly double the number of submarines appropriated for by thel ast session of Congress. From officials in close touch with the administration's plans for the navy it is learned that while the general board will wait until September before making its recommendations, at least 30 and probably more submarines would be in requisite.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, has formally called the attention of the State Department to the Fatherland, a German paper published in New York, pointing out that it forecast the sinking of the Lusitania and predicted internal explosions on ships sailing from the United tSates for the allied nations. Without making any request, the Ambassador's communication declared that such publications indicated "guilty foreknowledge of a crime."

Hannis Taylor, of Washington, former minister to Spain and an international lawyer, before the Alabama State Bar Association at Montgomery yesterday, discussing the United States and its duties as a neutral, said: "The time is approaching when we must either place ourselves in a state of war with Germany or accept a rebuff at her hands. The decision on the question of war or peace is vested by the Constitution in Congress alone, and no other authority should attempt to exercise it." Mr. Taylor declared Congress should meet immediately to plan measures to deal with Great Britain's blockade.

J. C. Davis, aged 22, was shot and killed and Homer Wilson and John Wilson, his father-in-law and brother-in-law, respectively, are under arrest charged with the killing, as a culmination of a family feud, yesterday near Shaw, Miss. While Davis was absent from his home Wilson and his son went to the house, it is alleged, and carried off Davis' 14-year-old wife, formerly Miss Wilson. The husband was hot while in pursuit of the fleeing men. The Wilsons, together with Mrs. Davis, were captured by a posse near Holly Ridge.

VIRGINIA NEWS

The Dutch steamer Albergeu, which left Newport News April 2 for Havana, Cuba, with a cargo of coal, has been given up as lost by her owners and agents.

More than $100,000 was collected in taxes on individual and corporation incomes in Virginia during the fiscal year 1915 than during the ten months of the fiscal year 1914, the first period of federal taxation of incomes.

High officials of the Greek government have made several trips to Norfolk of late for the purpose of inspecting coal handling facilities and making tests of the coal shipped through there.

The Tri-State Dental Association of the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, organized in 1913, will hold their third annual convention at the Bay Shore Hotel, Buckroe Beach, July 15th, 16th and 17th. This association has fourteen members from the District of Columbia, sixteen from Maryland and fourteen from Virginia.

One of the highest winds and most violent storms in some time, lasting only for a short time, visited Suffolk and parts of the surrounding country Thursday afternoon. Reports from Whaleyville and Franklin also state that both of these places were visited by one of the orst storms ever seen in this section. Considerable damage resulted, but no one was seriously injured.

Belief in the theory that Joseph Kranitzky, whose dead body was found floating in the pond at Lakeside Park, Richmond, Monday night, ended his own life, has been greatly weakened by the information which the police of Henrico county have secured from Richard Childrey, who is employed as a boatman at the home of Mrs. Grace Orange, who lives at Lakeside Park. The statements of Childrey gives substantial support to the assumption that Kranitzky did not die by his own hand.

The German officer from the cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich taken by British authorities from an Italian steamer at Gibraltar on June 7, and reported at the time as Captain Thierichens, was Third Surgeon Nolter, according to George W. Taylor, of Norfolk, now working with the Red Cross in the war zone. Taylor, writing here from Athens, says he recognized the man, and although the German officer was working as a cook, his presence was known to British naval officers. Nolter hoped to join the Turks at the Dardanelles.

Seven negroes and a white man were rendered unconscious during the severe electrical storm Thursday at Newport News, when lightning struck a ship on the ways under which they had taken shelter. Three of the negroes and the white man were taken to a hospital. Lightning struck a pole near the ship. The charge ran about halfway down the pole and leaped to the side of the ship. From the side of the ship the lightning traveled to the keel and forward up the keel and out through the bow into the earth. The men were directly under the ship and the traveling lightning knocked them to the earth.

Formal apology has been made by the Austro-Hungarian Government to United States Ambassador Frederic C. Penfield because of an abusive article printed in the Neues Wiener Tagblatt attacking President Wilson and the American people in connection with the second note protesting against German methods of submarine warafre. As a rigid censorship is exercised over Austrian papers, Ambassador Penfield had informally asked the Foreign Office if the article represented the opinion of the Austrian Government. The result was an apology and a sharp reprimand for the official censor.

HIT WIFE WITH SALT MEAT.

Divorce Suit Follows Religious Row Over Lunch Cooking.

Trenton, July 9.—The principal allegation made by Mrs. Esther Goldberg in her suit for divorce was that her husband struck her with a large piece of salt meat and threw her downstairs. Vice Chancellor Backes yesterday allowed $8 a week alimony pending the result of the suit.

Goldberg, a saloonkeeper, claims that his wife would not cook lunch for the patrons of his saloon because the Jewish laws would not permit her to cook in the same room where cooking was done for Gentiles.

IN THE CORPORATION COURT OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA VIRGINIA.

Hiram E. Ross, complainant.
vs. IN CHANCERY
Ida A. Ross, defendant,

Upon written application of the complainant, duly made and filed, together with an affidavit made by the complaintant of the defendant's non-residence, the said affidavit stating the last known address of the said defendant as No. 2240 Mount View Place, Anacostia, D. C. and it appearing from the Sergeant's return that the said defendant cannot be found within his bailiwick, nor within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, does on this 22nd day of June, A.D., 1915, enter the following order of publication against the defendant.

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant an absolute divorce from the defendant, on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and for general relief.

It is ordered that the defendant appear within fifteen days after due publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect her interests in this suit; that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper printed and published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy of said order of publication be posted at the front door of the Court House of the said City on or before the next succeeding rule day after the order is entered, and that a copy of the same be mailed to the last known address of the defendant, at 2240 Mount View Pl., Anacostia, D. C., by the Clerk by registered mail.

How Mrs. Harrod Got Rid of Her Stomach Trouble

"I suffered with stomach trouble for years and tried everything I heard of, but the only relief I got was temporary until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them at our drug store. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness after eating and from pain in the stomach," writes Mrs. Linda Harrod, Fort Wayne, Ind.

OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA,

Alberta Rosa Taylor,
vs. IN CHANCERY
Alfred Taylor,

Upon the written application of the complainant, made and filed in accordance with the statutes, together with the affidavits of the defendant's non-residence, the said affidavit stating the last known address of the said defendant, and it appearing from the return of the Sergeant that the said defendant is not a resident of the City of Alexandria, State of Virginia, and not within the jurisdiction of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, the Court does on this 10th day of June, 1915, enter the following order of publication against the said defendant.

MEMO: The object of this suit is published once a week for four consecutive weeks in the Gazette, a newspaper printed and published in the city of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy of the said order of publication be posted at the front door of the court house on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of the same be mailed to the last known address of the defendant, at Atlantic City, Street address unknown by the Clerk of this Court, by registered mail.
